

UConn Humanities Institute
presents

MARCH 9TH, 2017, 4PM
HOMER BABBIDGE LIBRARY
CLASS OF 1947 ROOM

MUST THE

REVOLUTION

BE DIGITAL?

With events of the Arab Spring and recent mobilization around the Movement for Black Lives, digital and social media have become crucial for activism and resistance. But some argue that the problems far outnumber the advantages. Come hear Zakia Salime (Rutgers U) and David Karpf (George Washington U) discuss and debate these issues. Moderated by Bhakti Shringarpure (UConn English).